

Join us on March 3, 2018,
to promote World Birth Defects Day, raise awareness of birth defects and expand birth defects surveillance, prevention, care and research worldwide.

You can:

Promote on websites and social media channels, including Thunderclap

Organize a meeting for the general public

Write an article for a magazine or newspaper

Organize a press conference

Organize a social event

Organize a scientific meeting

...or any other activities that would disseminate information
